

Grace Mengani

August 6, 1927 - April 3, 2022

Grace Mengani of Winter Springs, died of natural causes on April 3, 2022. She was 94. She was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York.

As a young woman she was employed by Western Union in New York City as a telephone operator. In 1948, she married, Raymond Mengani, who preceded her in death.. Together they raised four children and moved to Winter Park in 1970. She was named the Goodwill Ambassador of the South Orlando Italian American Club. Mrs. Mengani was a full time mother and a part time Orange County school crossing guard and bus aide.

She is survived by her daughters, Denise Mengani of Falmouth, MA, Karen Gonlin of Tierra Verde, Suzanne MacPherson and son Edward Mengani, both of Orlando.

Grace took the greatest satisfaction from her children's achievements. As a mother she faithfully did the work of love, and earned love's enduring rewards. She will live in our memories and in our hearts.

The family of Grace Mengani invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in her loving memory.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

APR 11. 11:00 AM (ET)

Glen Haven Memorial Park
2300 Temple drive
Winter Park, FL 32789

Tribute Wall

GM

“ Mrs Mengani was the mom of my friend Karen. I had spent time at the Mengani home and had many meals prepared by Mrs. Mengani. She was a beautiful woman and in those years my parents also became friendly with the Mengani family. One day after school, I went with Karen to her house. We passed time playing and it became late. Mrs Mengani invited me to stay for dinner. She suggested I call my mom and let her know where I was. I said its ok... Mrs. Mengani knew better and reached out to my mom to let her know.

After the Mengani's moved to Florida we saw them once when they traveled up north to NJ. I always kept fond memories of the family. My deepest sympathy on the loss of your beautiful Mom.

gwen marsico - November 05, 2022 at 11:16 AM