“ On Greg, what a wonderful man! So glad you and Brenda had each other, such a special couple. The first time we met you, we became good friends. Will always treasure our friendship. So glad we got to spend time with you and Brenda last month. We will miss you, but will see you again one day. Love, Linda and Mark

“ I love you dad and miss sitting on your lap as a child and when you would drive us down the backroads listening to country music and singing as me and Adam fell asleep. We have so many memories of those times. We will see you again and be reconciled when Jesus returns. May you rest in peace. Love Mandi pooh 🥹

P.s. My babies you're grandchildren ask about you all the time and wish they'd known you. Little Londyn actually looked you up tonight all on his own. Its amazing he knew your name and everything so typed it in & this popped up so wanted to say we love & miss you & hope you're at peace with grandma & grandpa & God. See you when we get there.

Just saw this pulled up on Liams phone can you believe that?? He is an amazing child, so are all t out r grandchildren. Wish things were different, but we'll see you and grandpa when we get there. Your grandbabies ask about him too and I tell them about everyone all the time. They said they believe you are these stars we can see that shine bright and are always over us. We love you

“ Greg was always a fun person to be around. I met him the day we moved in to the Lee Vista community some nine years ago and always enjoyed the warmth he showed for the families in our community. Almost every week he would drive by the tennis courts and be sure to say hello to my wife and I. We made sure we returned his greetings and both of us had times where we got to know him better. It is with great sadness that I post this warm reflection as we will miss Greg around here. Warmest Regards Tom & Cheryl Cheyney

“ Greg is one of the most caring and kind hearted people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I have known Greg for ten years and he did nothing but always put a smile on my face each day at work. I will always Cherish and remember our morning conversations and everything he has done for me. Greg you are truly missed. Love Kassie
