“ Greg was a great man and a great friend. He was an honest, hard working man that loved his family deeply. I had the privilege to work with and get to know Greg many years ago. It was a true pleasure to have him join the Westra team and work together again. His radiant personality, infectious laugh and bond of friendship will be greatly missed.

Sally, you, your family and friends are in my thoughts and prayers. May God give you the peace and comfort you need at this time.

“ We have so many memories of Greg and not one of them is a bad one! From college "outing" to NC and Florida vacations, we have some stories we could share! I will never forget July 4, 1981! He was one of the hardest working men we have met and he loved his wife and children. Although the occasional "idiot driver" could annoy him , the amount of patience, love, caring and kindness he exhibited toward his family was beautiful to see. Greg is already missed. We love him. -Rod and April Shuck

“ One of the nicest men I have ever been blessed to have know and been related to. A true Southern gentleman ... even though he was from West Virginia. He loved Sally, Hayley and Nick more than life itself. I will miss him. We all will. Don't worry Greg, Sally and the kids will be safe until we are all reunited again! I love you cousin!

I only knew Greg from calling on him periodically for business over the past 5 years or so. He was a fine gentlemen. Always friendly and a pleasure to talk with (we enjoyed talking about the Steelers) regardless of the situation. Will be praying the Lord comforts all family and friends during this difficult time. and until .

"Every man's life ends the same way. It is only the details of how he lived and how he died that distinguish one man from another." I had the pleasure of working with Greg and getting to know the great individual he was. He will be missed by all here at Westra Construction. The one thing I could count on from Greg was always a proud father story about his children.

May God comfort your family Greg.

We were so shocked and saddened to learn of Greg's death. We first met this beautiful family in 1990 when we became neighbors. It was fun to watch Hayley and Nick grow up over those years and they all couldn't have asked for a nicer husband and father. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the children, Sally.

Angela, Lisa, Steve and all the family, Although we lost touch with each other over time, I have from time to time thought of the great fun we had growing up and visiting together in West Virginia. I am very sorry to hear of Greg's passing. My thoughts, prayers and sympathy go out to Greg's family.

I, too, knew Greg as a neighbor and I, too, knew from the moment I met him how much he valued, cared for and loved his family. Hayley and her big bows and outgoing personality and grace, Nick and his boyish charms, gocarts and, eventually, race cars, and Sally, his mate in life with her friendly ways and warm graces. Greg always had a kind smile and friendly conversation to share and he kept an eye an me and helped when he could, often without my even asking. I am so sorry I did not take the time to re-connect with him and Sally in recent days, always meaning to but getting too caught up in the day-to-day. I'm so sorry about that, Greg, but truly know that I wish I had and that you made a mark in my life and I'll always remember your warm smiles and kind deeds. Even that potatoe blaster!!! Sally, Hayley and Nick, you're in my thoughts and prayers. I talked often with your dad about you kids and he loved every second of it. Much love to you all.
