

Gus Mannino

April 2, 1924 - December 13, 2016

Gus Mannino passed peacefully away at home (Brookdale Island Lakes, Longwood, FL) on December 13, 2016. Born in New York City on April 2, 1924. Gus is survived by his children Anthony (Kathleen), Denise (Christopher), Michael (Ann) four grandsons, Ryan, Michael, Anthony and Kenneth and two great grandsons, Michael Vincent and Titan. Gus was preceded in death by his wife, Grace. Before moving to Central Florida in 2009, Gus and Grace lived in Vero Beach, FL for 27 years. Gus was passionate about golf-he not only worked on a golf course after retiring from the insurance industry but played the game well. He also volunteered much of his time over the years. In honor of his contribution as a volunteer, the Indian River Golf Foundation presents an award every year to an individual who, like Gus, is considered an outstanding volunteer - this award is appropriately named the "Gus Mannino Award".

What a beautiful tribute to a very special man. I was smiling at the start, crying in the middle and doing a little of both after the video was finished. In the end all we have are our memories. Anthony, Denise and Michael you have many beautiful moments to remember. I know my Godfather is resting in peace having left such a sweet legacy... his children and grandchildren. I will miss your always upbeat and happy voice.

Cousin Gussie had one of the best attitudes I've ever seen!

He was full of warmth and love.

I'll always remember spending time with him in person or on the phone talking baseball and music!

It's a big loss to the family.

My condolences to his children, but no doubt he is surely in Heaven!
