“ Don Dilenno - Friend posted a condolence If anything could be said for a man it would be that if he were genuine and wanted to do the best he could do for his family,for his friends and in his work ethic that that would be something great for one man's life and Harold was all about that and yet much more. Harold had a will of steel, a heart of gold and a delightfully raunchy humor who would not hurt a flea unless some punk got in his face and sorely deserved a good ass-kickin and the only way to resolve it would be to slap the crap out of the jerk: anything less would just not be dignified. I write this in with a tear in my eye and I think a way that Harold would like it, in all due respect: 'Ok Big-Boy, who the flip do you think you are leaving us this way you rat fudge hole. If you did not want to finish my interior you could have just told me. Butt noooo, now you up and run off with your new found friends Prince and Liberace. Ain't that special'. You will be severely missed, friend. God Bless and Love.

“ Fred Gagnon - Cousin posted a condolence I am so sorry to hear of Harold's passing. I have great memories of the family coming up to Fort Kent visiting in the summer. We would go target shooting in the gravel pit behind our home. I remember walking to Canada to go bowling and Harold had a pack of fire crackers in his pocket. He put the packet in his shoe when we crossed the boarder back into the USA. Please accept my sincere condolences to the Hansen family.
