“ I was able to visit where she rests in peace with her family recently. It made me think of the good times I got to spend with her while growing up with her daughter Leah.

“ I can't believe that it's already been 3 months since our mother passed away and went to join God's beautiful angels. Although I know she is safe and watching over myself and my brother, it doesn't stop me from missing her voice, laughter, advice, hugs, and Love everyday.

**Mom, you were my best friend in the whole world, and I love you so much for being such a wonderful mother to both of us, and always being there for all our ups and downs, and never giving up on us to become the best people we can be. You taught us spirituality, strength, happiness, loyalty, family, and Love, and nor I or Mikey will ever forget that. You were truly the best mother a child could ever ask for. I LOVE AND MISS YOU =)*
