“ My only Grandparent for 41 of my 46 years, my Nana is irreplaceable. In our last conversation, just a few weeks ago, we talked about everything under the sun including but not limited to what she was watching on TV: the 1933 John Ford film, Stagecoach and whether or not Claire Trevor had three or four husbands. (It was three) I am thankful for her longevity, which allowed her to meet the fifth generation of her family, her Great Great Grandson, “Beanie”. My only hope now is that she puts in a good word for the rest of us with the man upstairs, because if anyone could help in that regard, it was my Nana.

“ I lost my Mom, my best friend and my Cruise Buddy. She loved to dress up at night for dinner and the shows, and we both loved the Casino! I can still see her on one machine all night assuring me it was about to hit! Love you Mom, Always

“ My grandmother played such a huge role in my life and I am happy I got to spend my 40 years of life with her in it. She is truly an angel and has impacted so many people. I know she is looking down on all of us and enjoying time up there with Pop pop and everyone else. She will forever be with me in spirit and memories. I love you Nana!!
