

Helen C Stanney

November 29, 2015

To my love, my soulmate I know you are in the arms of your mother looking down at me wanting me to live life to the fullest. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten, you will always be in my heart. I know one day I will return to your arms. I love you forever.

“ Tom Thievon - Co-worker/friend posted a condolence I was blessed to call Chrissy my friend and co-worker. Chrissy's pleasant ways and smiles were contagious. Chrissy guided her students, co-workers, and friends in a way that was unmistakably "Chrissy". Her sense of humor could knock a person off their chair. Will always remember lunchtime with Chrissy and the P.E. Team at Northwest Elementary School. Heavens gain is truly our loss. May God bless and comfort Dan, Nick, and Chris and the entire family. Friends Always

“ Mike Long - co-worker posted a condolence Crissy's sudden death has taken us all by surprise as for me I am still in shock. I came to Northwest Elementary in 1993 after 19 years of teaching middle school physical education. After meeting Crissy with her energetic personality, beautiful smile and her willingness to do what ever was ask for the good of the program and helping kids find success. I knew I was going to be made welcome and there was no way that Crissy was going to let me fail these kids. After retiring in 2009 I continued to sub and often found my self back on the P.E. field at Orange Grove with Crissy. I consider myself one of the lucky people to have met and worked with Crissy. She touched so many lives in so many positive ways. I feel thankful the time I got to spend around her, she could light up a room by her mere presents. R.I.P. my dear friend. Payers and thoughts to her family.

“ Donn E. DeWitt - Sister posted a condolence I still find it painfully hard to believe Crissy is gone. She was so much more than a loving sister, she was a true friend. I'll always remember her as a special person who's unselfish concern for others came well before her own. That was gift from her loving mother, Helen, who cherished her dearly. I share the heartfelt pain of Dan, Chris and Nick. They, as well as I, have lost a part of our lives. I,Il miss her 'til the end of time!!!

“ Gary Curtis - Co-worker posted a condolence I had the pleasure to work with Crissy as we both taught Elementary Physical Education for around 28 years at two schools. She was such an energetic person and a trusted associate to teach, discipline and manage the children. They loved her as much as she loved working with them. Crissy touched so many children' lives. Our tears will soon be outweighed by the many loving memories that we shared together. May God bless her family in her absence.

“ Colleen Howard-Wahls - NW friend posted a condolence Crissy was such a bright light that would always shine in a crowd. She laughed easily and cared deeply. I was fortunate to work with her at Northwest Elementary for a very long time. I remember her quick wit and beautiful laugh. Crissy was there for a funny story, a strong hug when you needed it, and a kick in the pants if it was called for. I am so very sorry the world has lost this angel. My sympathies to her family. She was so proud of her family! May your memories become the treasures they are meant to be. Gone way too soon. Colleen Wahls

“ Patti Frisch - sister posted a condolence Dan ,Chris and Nick Some things in life can not be fixed, they can only be carried. Grief lasts forever because your love for her will last forever. However, grief and joy can and do coexist. She was the best gift you were ever given and death can never take that away. I am here with you guys in this brutally painful journey. My prayer is for strength and courage to get up out of bed and make it through another day and try to somehow find a new normal in this life without her. Dan, Chris and Nick I will always cherish the time I spent with Cookie she was my sister. The SPIRIT her breath of life will always remain with us. I love you guys so much!

“ Elizabeth Cramer - Good Friend posted a condolence Sometimes in life, you find a special friend; Someone who changes your life just by being part of it. Someone who makes you laugh until you can't stop; Someone who makes you believe that there really is good in the world. Someone who convinces you that there really is an unlocked door just waiting for you to open it. This is Forever Friendship. Lizzy

“ Shalah Dobson - coworker posted a condolence I am so very sorry for your loss! Chrissy was such a kind, sweet person. Last year when I was going through a very hard time with my mother in a hospital, Chrissy came out of the P.E. office, hugged me, and said, "I hear you on the phone with the hospital every day. I know what you are going through, and how hard that is." I will always remember that kindness. Please accept my most sincere sympathy.
