“ So many fond memories growing up with Hank in South Tampa. Sandlot baseball games, whiffle ball, midnight bowling during the Summer at Dale Mabry Lanes with a trip to Krispy Kreme first! Visits to Houston when you lived with my brother Art (let's place golf- I know a good course close by... arrive at Blue Bonnet 2 hours later!!!) Then all the races at Daytona Speedway. You built my first computer in the 1980s. I'm sure you're playing golf with my Dad now... and he's asking you to speed up! Farewell Hank, you'll be missed.

Well said John Pilley. Likewise, the Gruendel family has some very fond memories of Hank from back in the day. Many rounds of golf, and many lost golf balls, but so much fun. Rest in peace Hank.
