

Horace J. Howell

August 4, 2011

HORACE JOHN HOWELL was born on December 13, 1946 in Berlin, Rose Hall, Saint Elizabeth, Jamaica.

He attended the Rose Hall All Age School. He learned to drive at an early age because it was his passion. He enjoyed country music such as the music of Johnny Cash and Marty Robbins. He was what we call a Jack-of-all-trades because he could fix almost anything that was broken.

At an early age, Horace left St. Elizabeth and lived in Kingston. He went to school and trained to become a J.O.S., bus driver where he worked for 7 years. During this time he met his wife Pauline of 41 years, and was married to her for 37 years. He had several other jobs including: driver for Staccote Furnishing Company- six years, driver for Texaco-12 1/2 years, chauffeur for the Canadian Embassy in Kingston for a short time, and chauffeur for the Curtis
