“ He was such a kind person. His voice was very peaceful and he was a very positive and caring man. He supported his family in time of need and was a very generous person. He was my dad's cousin and I always heard so many good things about him. He and Kathy came to Houston to visit us when my parents came to here from Iran and got a chance to know him and his wife more closely and learn more about their wonderful personality in such a short time. We all will miss him so much and I know how hard it will be for his family to lose such a great spirit person like Houshang. He will always be remembered by so many friends and relatives and Rest In Peace .
