February 9, 1934 - July 29, 2012

Dr. Howard Nease passed away Sunday, July 29th, 2012 at Florida Hospital Ginsburg Tower. An elegant man in appearance and personality, he died after a valiantly fought long illness.

Howard was born in Kingman, Kansas on February 9th, 1934. He was the third of five children of Evlena and Francis Nease. Raised on a farm there he learned early to appreciate the values love of God, family, and hard work. His father was a minister and Howard followed in his footsteps, receiving his Doctorate of Divinity. After his ministry he joined the company, Mutual of Omaha and became an insurance executive. After 25 years with that company he founded Personal Dynamics in Toledo, Ohio in the 1960s. In this endeavor he found his true niche as a corporate and individual training consultant. The training was comprised of encouraging people in their careers and in their personal lives to live synergistically, creating situations where everyone wins. A tireless encourager, he was often referred to as the nicest person you would ever want to meet. Howard retired to Florida in 1996 and met and married Dolores Stephens. They had sixteen, wonderful years together. They loved their homes as much as they loved to travel. In the latter years she became his steadfast caretaker and survives him. The family would like to thank the dedicated doctors and nurses at the Florida South Ginsburg Tower 5th floor ICU for their care of Howard and their unparalleled compassion for him and his family. Everyone is heartbroken.

Brothers Harold and Leland Nease, son Michael, and great-grand child Nevaeh predecease him. Howard's surviving siblings are brother James Nease, wife Theresa, sister Lola Cornelison and husband Bill. His surviving children include sons, Rick, Greg and wife Melinda, Randy, Jeff and wife Denise, and daughter Debbie and her husband William Cook.
