“ Hurbilina Morrison, better known as Grandma, was my cousin. My name is Ermine Morgan. I am unable to attend Grandma's Homegoing Service but it would be remiss of me not to let others know what she meant to me.

Hurbilina, loving called Grandma by all was one of my favorite cousins. She was always there for me, but we became real close when she got a job for me as the bookkeeper at the 67th Precinct Senior Center where she was the assistant director. We worked very well together. The seniors loved her dearly although she was very outspoken. Her favorite pastime was playing dominoes and she taught the seniors who did not know how to play the game.

She was a staunch Anglican Church member. She never missed a Sunday. When seen through her children, grandchildren and the ones she raised, what she did was incomprehensible. On a superficial level, she was a mother doing what mothers did - mothering beyond that, despite the differences between her and other nowadays mothers. I didn't understand or fully appreciate the gifts she brought.

Beauty is free - that's another legacy from her. It's everywhere if you have eyes to see it - a sunrise, a child's smile, a meal prepared with love, appreciation of it doesn't increase with the amount of money in your wallet.

And that was Grandma, my cousin. She was the example of persistence, courage, service, faith, hope, love of beauty and the ongoing quest for truth.

She will be sorely missed, but she is in a better place now. May her soul and the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

“ To the Morrison family,
I'm sorry to hear of your loss. Hurbilina lived a long life. I hope that you all receive much support and love during this time of loss. May God grant you peace and strength as you reflect on his promise of the resurrection for her. (Acts 24:15) Your family is in my thoughts.
