

Mr. Ian Clive Goede

March 14, 1990 - June 27, 2013

Ian Clive Goede, 23, of Altamonte Springs, FL entered into eternal rest on June 27, 2013 surrounded by his loving family.

While attending Lake Brantley High School, Home of the Patriots, Ian participated in the football and the weightlifting teams. After high school he completed his EMT certification and was pursuing a B.A. in Business Management at Seminole State College.

In his spare time he was a fan of the University of Miami – Home of the Hurricanes, he also enjoyed cars, outdoors, gunsmithing, and had a very special connection with children.

Left to cherish his memory are his parents, Armand Jean and Maureen E. Goede; siblings: Michelle Goede; Massiel Goede; Reinier Goede; and Josy Cross. nieces and nephews: Nicole Heinsen; Miguel Armando Parra; Miguel Enrique Tejeda; Sean Spearman; Breana Cross; Alayna Cross; and Renata Parra; and his loving girlfriend, Lauren Flynn. Ian's likable personality will be missed by many friends and family.

There will be a memorial celebration of life at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, July 2nd at DeGusipe Funeral Home followed by a reception.

Should friends desire, in lieu of flowers, a donation in Ian's name may be made to AMSCI (www.amcsupport.org).

We'll be in a plane headed north at time time of Ian's Angelversary Balloon Release event at Teague. While we are sorry to miss being with you and your incredible support system of many family & friends, we will look from the sky for the many balloons released in Ian's memory :). As a family, we will pause to say a prayer for Ian at that same time.

Many fond memories of your Ian, family and now grandbabies at Bear Lake.

*Love and pray for you all daily,
Chris Koebke & Family*

“ One of the most amazing people I have ever met and you will always be in my heart. Even as the days go on, I still can not believe you are gone. You have made such a huge impact on my life and this is going to be one tough battle. You loved me unconditionally and accepted me for who I am and I didn't know you could love a person as much as I love you. I know you are at peace now and are in complete happiness and that is all I ever wanted. I hope you continue to be by my side like you always were. I'm going to miss that smile, your goofy laugh, you singing to me (when you should be paying attention to driving), our late night trips to walmart because you decided your hungry at 3am, or HAVING to stop by 7eleven even when you weren't really sure you even needed anything, our hour long talks laying down and just talking about our future, dancing like we had an audience in your bedroom. I'm even going to miss you annoying me at night time when I would try to go to sleep but you couldn't and you wanted me to stay up with you so you would find every possible way to keep me up or our little arguments when we got jealous of each other yet we knew we would never hurt one another. I am going to miss every part of life that had you in it.. the little text messages I got from you in the morning that started my day with a smile.. or the random flowers and gifts when I was down. You had a heart bigger than anybody I have ever known and it will not be forgotten. You truly are going to be missed.. not only by me but many people that were able to see who you were. You touched many peoples lives and made a lot of people realize how precious life is. Your beautiful smile was contagious and you lit up peoples faces with your personality. Continue to shine. I can not wait to see you again one day. <3 I love you and miss you more than anything babe !!!!!
Forever and ever in my heart

“ Para ese ángel llamado Ian que desde hoy tenemos en el cielo y que dejó tras su corto paso por la vida una bella estela de solidaridad y luz, de energía y amor. La familia Espailat Bobadilla siempre lo llevará en su corazón y a distancia comparte con Maureen y Armand Jean y todos sus demás familiares la pena de no saberlo ya entre nosotros pero con la esperanza de que él está en el único lugar donde no hay ni pena ni dolor...en el cielo. “ There are so many great things about Ian, but the best thing about him was his loyalty! He NEVER EVER left his friends or families side..... I had known him briefly and we always talked about how quickly we became family after Nick introduced us. He used to say could tell me anything and our long conversations proved it was equally as easy for me to tell him things. He said he looked up to me as a man and felt like if he ever needed me he'd know I wouldn't hesitate. THE TRUTH is, as I told him, there aren't many REAL people in life that didn't judge you for what you are, but love you for your potential and what you could be. Ian was, is and always will be one of the most LOYAL, REAL and dedicated people I've ever known. What he probably didn't know, is we all looked up to HIM for his strength and passion and love for THE ones who meant the most. Love you bro and you'll always be with us.

“ My precious "Duddie".....Words can't describe the roller coaster of emotions during the last few days. The sorrow and heart break brought on by your sudden passing feels like a ton of bricks weighing down on my heart.

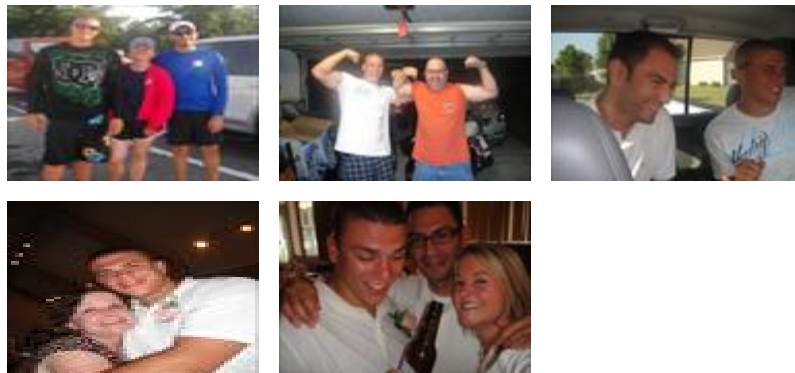

It's unimaginable to me that I won't see you or talk to you again. As raw as these emotions are, when I think of all the fun times we had and I listen to your beloved friends and family sharing memories, I find joy and laughter. You have always been a bright shining star with a heart of gold. You were one of the most selfless, caring and compassionate people I've ever known. The last few days have shown me that so many people thought the same about you. You had such a powerful impact on so many lives. You were always surrounded by friends who truly loved you and appreciated YOU. Though I have another guardian angel in heaven now, I really wish I could somehow bring you back. I am so proud and honored to say I was your Aunt for 23 years. I will always cherish the amazing times we had and our bond will always remain. 'Til we meet again gorgeous..... I love you very much.
