

Irene M. McBeth

June 12, 2009

Irene passed away on June 12, 2009 at Northside Hospital after a sudden illness. She married Charles McBeth in January 12, 1985. They spent their times traveling and visiting her children all over the country. Her and Chuck moved to St. Petersburg, Florida in June 1997 and lived there until her passing. Irene was a caring and loving person who touched everyone she met.

She is survived by Loving Husband, Charles, 2 daughters, Jean Lakly and Arlene Haynie both of St. Petersburg, Florida and 2 sons, Ronald Ferrari, Avondale, Arizona and Robert Ferrari Sr., Derby, Kansas. Many Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren. Also her sister, Margaret Heskey, Hunker, Pennsylvania and brother John Hudock, Mt. Pleasant, Pennsylvania.

Her wish upon passing was to return home to be buried. She will be taken by her family to Galone - Caruso Funeral Home in Mt. Pleasant, Pennsylvania for viewing on Friday, June 19, 2009. A memorial service will be held on Saturday June 20, 2009 at 10:00 at Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church and then she will be laid to rest at Visitation Parrish Cemetery.

Her passing leaves a void to everyone she has known, yet we feel no sorrow because we know she is in a place where there are no tears or pain, only peace. We feel better knowing she sits with the Lord watching over us.

We LOVE you and MISS you! God Bless You. Irene McBeth.

REST IN PEACE

“ Tim and Jean Lakly - Daughter & Son-in-Law posted a condolence Mother was a beautiful ady. We will miss her. I will never forget all the wonderful things she did for Tim and Me when she came to visit us in Florida. She said she didn't care for pets, but our dog's TJ and Muffin loved her and TJ would howl when he heard her car drive off to work. I would like to thank her for everything she did to make our life a little easier. We have a ton of memories and pictures. She will never be forgotten.
