“ Irma was one of the kindest and most beautiful souls I have known. An excellent mother to Jose, Ed and Mary, and grandmother to their children, she also cared for and never forgot her family in Cuba. Some of my fondest memories are of gatherings at one of our homes when we all first came to the U.S. from Cuba. In those days, when other Cuban refugees became more than friends - like a family created in exile - Irma was my aunt. I will always remember her sense of humor, her laughter, and the smile I will forever carry in my heart. May she finally rest in the peace and Divine Mercy of Christ, and dwell for eternity in the fullness of His love. - Alina
