“ Stuck in my WPHS long term memory is Irvin the football star. I thought it so enviable that the cutest girl in school went with Irvin " the football star". The greatest is his commitment to "the cutest girl" , Susan, and family for 62 years. Thanks for the faith and hope.

“ Dear Snodgrass Family, I thank you all for welcoming me into your family so many years ago. The love I have for your entire family is immeasurable. You dad was a special man. He's loved me, loved our children, loved you all, since the day I met him. His wife, children, and grandchildren were what he lived for. He attended all our children's activities (even when MawMaw may have had to prod him). He always came, and seemed to enjoy. He loved watching ball games with Randy, attending ball games to watch Randy's teams, watching Dusty play soccer, Lyle play football, Addie cheer, Taylor play softball, basketball, and cross country, and could be counted on to enjoy a meal out with us. He took great care of Taylor when I went back to work (even though I would get upset because he would feed her too much). He made it clear he would do anything, except change a dirty diaper.

He enjoyed traveling with us, fishing with us, and anything else we asked him to do. He was always eager to participate. I am so grateful for all the memories our family will keep close to our heart. I thank him for being more of a father to me in the later years than my own. I admire him for being such a great role model for my children. I am grateful for everything he did for our family, and for all the times we were able to be with him.

Thank you PawPaw for always being kind, loving, generous, and supportive of us. You meant the world to each of us, but especially Randy and Taylor. You will be truly missed, and hope you are looking down from heaven seeing all the lives you touched during your time here on earth. You were an awesome man, a true gentleman, and a mentor to many. We love you, and will always hold a very special place in our hearts for you!

Love, Val, Jeffrey, and Taylor

“ Somehow you always remember certain people from your youth. Irvin was at the top of my memory bank for a number of reasons. As a hard-hitting linebacker in football, Irvin rearranged some of my vertebrae in such that I gave up all plans for a career in the pros by the 10th grade. I’m sure coaches would say Irving was probably the toughest player on the ball field. He also water skied on the ocean at Daytona Beach as I pulled him in my Hudson Hornet with a long rope from the shore. He remembered it well, too, because of the “cherry” burn he got after he sailing through the air and landing on a sand bar.

Irvin came to our informal gathering of old Wildcats at Dubstead Country Club’s Tap Room a few years back. Sitting there and listening to all the tall tales from our youth were Dave Donnelly, Nick Johns, Davie Sims, Ned Biddix, Irvin and myself. I remembered how especially thrilled he was to be there. I also remember that was the last time we saw Irvin.

We enjoyed an idyllic growing up in Winter Park during the 1950s. Quite a few of us feel that Irvin Snodgrass played a major role in our excitement, fun and fellowship. Godspeed Irvin, RIP. We pray for Susan and the family.
