“ I served with Ish on the Siemens Westinghouse Retirees Social Committee. Ish was a hard working contributor, planning events for the enjoyment of his fellow retirees. More important, Ish was an all around great person who loved and was proud of his family and his heritage. I enjoyed listening to his stories of his trips and visits back to India during our committee lunches. Ish will be greatly missed. RIP my friend.

“ We met in London England for the first time when he was on his way to India via Germany. We immediately bonded. He had become Dr. Ish Aneja and I was very much impressed with his wisdom , with his charm and personality. I came to Canada and we both got busy with our work and raising family. I took my son Paul to Disney World in 1990 , while his both parents were there and we had a lovely time visiting his family at his house and had meal with all of them. Then there was a gap of 9 years until he came to my dear niece's wedding in Toronto with his whole family. we had a great time and was very enjoyable occasion. Two years ago , he came to visit my sister-in-law ( his cousin) in her hospital and he stayed with us for 2-3 days. We were honoured to have him staying with us and we had superb time together.He had a chance to meet my grown up and also extended family. we will miss him dearly. May God give him peace and courage to bear the loss to Rosie Aman , Rema , and family.

“ We send our deepest condolences to all the family. Ish was such a special friend since I met him 2+ decades ago. His kindness, willingness to always be there to assist in every which way he can always appreciated. He will be dearly missed specially since the circle of friendship has lost one of our strongest links. May his soul rest in peace and may the family find comfort during these sad days with stories and laughter that he so exuded.

“ We have been friends since I moved to Orlando in 1989. Have many pleasant memories particularly after we retired from Siemens at the same time in 2002. We started a small group of Siemens Westinghouse retirees and met regularly- going out for lunches, hiking and casino cruises. Will miss him. God Bless his soul.
