“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Jake was a wonderful Latin student whom I loved dearly.
He was always so eager to learn and wanted to do well and achieved such great success; His projects were so creative and well thought out; he was so pleasing, polite and a joy to have in the classroom; and his faith showed in his warm, delightful personality and demeanor.
So glad to read he continue to pursue his interest in classics at UF. I will remember him fondly. What a remarkable young man you raised! My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. May you find comfort that he is with the Lord.

“ Jake,

This is a poem we read in our 12th grade English class.

" Sunset and evening star,

And one clear call for me!

And may there be no moaning of the bar,

When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,

Too full for sound and foam,

When that which drew from out the boundless deep

Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,

And after that the dark!

And may there be no sadness of farewell,

When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place

The flood may bear me far,

I hope to see my Pilot face to face

When I have crossed the bar."

You were a wonderful friend and you made high school so much fun especially our english classes. You were courageous and a fighter.

You were such a gentlemen and a fantastic athlete will miss you so much and I will never forget you.

Love,

“ To the Snyder Family -

God Bless Jake Snyder and his courageous fight. And God Bless the Snyder Family for your awesome love, support and humanity.

We are so happy that Jake lives on every time the JAKE SNYDER boat hits the water and a child smiles as he finds accomplishment in his ability to row, fight through adversity and prevail.

We found a poem that seems to us to capture Jake's spirit in so many ways that we wanted to share it:

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep
I'm not in there, I do not sleep
I am a 1,000 winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sun on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumn rain
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled light
I am the soft star that shines at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there; I did not die."*

Jake lives on in so many people in so many positive ways. God Bless Jake Snyder.

Our deepest and most heartfelt condolences.

“ Jake,

I am honored to have been able to be your teammate and friend for these past few years. You brought new meaning to the words optimism and happiness. I feel that everyone on this world was put here for a reason. Everyone that came into contact with you over the course of your life learned something and walked away being a little bit of a better person. You have taught me to not be down over the little things and see the light in situations. You far exceeded what you were meant to do here in just a short time, and that, my friend, is pretty incredible. You will not be forgotten. You will be missed.

Love to you and your wonderful family,

“ It would be nearly impossible to express the extent to which Jake had a positive impact on my family and my life, but I thought I would share a particularly important moment/memory that will always stay with me:

I remember talking with Kate just before Jake went off to UF along with my little sisters. I was so happy to know that my sisters would be in the same place as someone as smart, kind, and motivated as Jake. A few weeks later, Jake was one of the first familiar faces we saw while getting the sisters settled at UF. At the time, I was feeling pretty sad about this new transition in life (home was now an empty nest). Honestly though, seeing Jake's genuine smiling face on the UF campus put me at ease. For whatever reason, even saying hello to Jake briefly was enough to raise my whole family's spirits that day.

I wish I were more articulate to express my deep love and appreciation for the profound impact Jake made on everyone around him. Please know that I will give blood wherever and as often as I can in his honor.

*Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leafs a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.*

“ Jake had a rare gift for only acknowledging the positive in people. Brent and I both noticed that we never heard Jake say anything negative about another person in all the years we knew him. He had a quiet, private nature, but he also had a generous, gentle way with people. During the years in scouting, Jake was the example for other scouts to follow. God blessed us with knowing you, Jake.##imported-begin##Randy Gordon##imported-end##

“ In life there are moments of darkness, we seem to be wandering forever in that vast darkness. But there is hope and knowledge on our sides. The hope that we shall see the light once again, and with knowledge we know that the sun must set and give way to the twilight and the darkness. So we wander through with our memories that fill us with warmth as we journey onwards through the black abyss. Then when all memories seem to fade and all hope is all but gone twilight comes back into the world. The ground begins to warm and the land becomes clearer to us. And with one last push the sun takes over the world again and there is such great beauty to behold. Jake I know all too well about that journey and when my hope was fading fast and I thought I was all alone I remembered that I had friends and family that loved and cared for me and all I had to do was to let them in. With those lessons I formed a principle that is the foundation of my life:

It is not the individual that makes their own life it is the friends and family that they surround themselves with that composes life. With them we are all interconnected and will live on through those who love us.

Jake your smile, your friendship will always be a part of the foundation of my life. Though your spirit does not reside in your body anymore your life and the lessons you taught us all will live on through us. I thought about not going to a party tonight with my friends but then I remembered how you always had a smile on your face and a positive attitude, and then I knew that if you were here you would go and you would have fun. So tonight I shall remember and celebrate life as you did and would want us to do. And so I say God Bless us all for we are indeed a family held together by a common bound Jake. Rest In Peace Jake (aka Mr. Clean aka Jake the Snake), my friend you will be missed.##imported-begin##Sean Campbell##imported-end##

“ My Muskogee Creek Indian mentor/advisor sent me a very good condolence that I would like to add:
"I am especially moved by the photo of Jake and little Matt. An infectious smile indeed it is. Jake will be a great loss to family and friends. In the ever-present duality, his on-going spirit and deeds done will also be a great comfort and memories without end to all who knew him and will continue to know him in their hearts, minds and souls. I know his absence will be especially hard on you as you had a major hand in directing his development and growth into a short-lived manhood. But, from all I've been able to ascertain, you did one helleva a great job--Mvto on Jake's behalf. Over the years, I've always appreciated your occasional and thoughtful mentions of Jake and how supportive and thoughtful you were when cancer stuck him so young. Never forget that what's a loss in one world is always gain in the other world. We'll remember Jake for you and your father. Please extend our regards to his family from our Muskogee Creek family."

“ Dear Jay, Lisa, Katelin and Ben,

Our heart goes out to you during this very difficult time. There are no words that that can be said to ease your pain but please know you are continuously in our thoughts and prayers. The following is an excerpt from the poem "Footprints in the Sand". This poem has brought me great solace during my most difficult times. Maybe, in time, it will bring some comfort to each of you.

Much love and many prayers, your sister Nancy.

*"...I said to the Lord,
"You promised me Lord,
that if I followed you,
you would walk with me always.
But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life
there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most, you have not been there for me?"*

*The Lord replied,
"The times when you have seen only one set of footprints in the sand,
is when I carried you."*

“ Dear Jay: Our hearts go out to you and your family. We believe we have become better persons since we met you by learning from the noble principles that make your character. As your son, Jake also did a good share in making a better world for all. His early departure is an irreparable loss that can only be filled by the conviction that he's answering God's call for help in his quest for good.##imported-begin##Orestes##imported-end##

“ Dear Lisa and family, your and Jake's friendship and guidance meant so much to Aaron and the family when Aaron was first diagnosed and I often passed on the advice you gave me and treasured the cross that Jake had given Aaron. I was honored to return it back to him to get him through his last days. Much love and prayers to you and the family.##imported-begin##Rhonda Breuer##imported-end##

“ Jake,
Even though we didn't know eachother well, I still remember what a truly sweet and caring person you were. I wish I had gotten to know you better because I have such fond memories of you making classes in high school that much better with your positivity and happiness. My heart goes out to the Snyder family. I am so sorry for your loss and I only wish that more people in the world could be like Jake.##imported-begin##Jen Tankel##imported-end##
