“ 38 years ago we became friends, who then would know we would be BFF's forever. Life has brought us through ups and downs, which we helped each other and rejoiced through it all. I am thankful and grateful that I was with you in your final moments here on earth. But I have to say my heart is happy for you to be healed in Heaven with Jesus and no more pain, but my heart here on this earth is still sad and missing you. Please keep being my angel from above. Love and miss you much BFF, till we meet again Denise
