“ James Phillip's Aunt Rosemary and I had the best of times visiting (bothering) Jean and Johnny when they first got married. We were their first dinner guests. I used to tell them I didn't know when they were ever alone long enough to parent two kids! We even bothered them more after James Phillip was born. I think we were with them after school every day, playing with the baby. We sure did love him. I didn't see him much after he grew up as we lived in different states but I knew that he was a very smart guy like his dad. My sympathies for all James's family.

“ Jimmy, Marsha, and I used to have so much fun playing cowboys and Combat when they came to visit at our farm. I was able to see him in the hospital eleven days before he passed. I thank God for that brief time we had together. Prayers for all the family at this time of sorrow.

“ Jim worked for many years at Lee Middle School, and he was a kind, caring teacher. His love for education was boundless; and he was one of the smartest people I ever met. Generous and Helpful. If I ever needed materials for a class project, Jim had them. Rest In Peace, dear friend.

“ Remembering my wonderful big brother & the many lives Jim touched. He was an inspiration to me the moment I was born. He was my first and best friend. Our mother said, when I was a baby, he was the first person to make me laugh. Isn't that just like, Jim? He will be deeply missed.
