“ Jimmy and I were good friends in middle and high school. He was such a great person and in school a little on the shy side. I'm so sorry our paths didn't cross recently... May his family and friends receive comfort from the memories you have of this sweet guy. Rest in peace, Jimmy. 😊

“ 'Big Jimmy" will/is always be fond in our hearts and minds. The memories that will remain the longest is our beach trip to "Bethune Beach" and the Saturday party he hosted at his apartment. Even though our (speaking from Steve) paths may not have crossed as often that we'd like, I remember your graciousness in sharing the bag of cigars that you trusted to my safekeeping. From Gina's perspective, her hope was to have been in Florida by this time in her life so she could have played more of a part in spending quality time and helping with your two young men. One of his many strong suits was his passion about everyone getting together and have fun, always the "fun-master".

With much love, looking forward to our next visits with you, Mom and Dad....
