“ About Jimmy...
He was my favorite brother-in-law, albeit, my only one, could never imagine a different one.
He definitely shared our love for Brooklyn and talked constantly about all the yesterdays gone by.
His sense of humor was dry, sometimes, let me correct that, most of the time made sense only to him. We either laughed or yelled at him depending on the nature of his statement. He would just roll his eyes and he let go another comment that made less sense.
Jimmy was very soft spoken, unlike the majority of the family. But when he was being nagged or yelled at he was the master of selective hearing.
He was my competition when it came to junk food. When I visited them my first words after hello was- Where did you hide the chocolate?
I will miss teasing, nagging and yelling at him about everything but I loved him.
His love for my sister was undeniable even though there was no kissy face. He loved his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren without question. There should not be any doubt that he was proud of the family they raised.
And as an after thought, yes Jimmy, Jan & I live in Florida.
All I can say Jimmy is when we meet again don't hide the chocolate.
We love you and you will be missed,
Your Sister-in-law Bunny & Janice

“ Even though I haven't seen much of you over the past few years, you have always been in my thoughts. All my memories are happy ones and filled with laughter.....as far back as I can remember as a little kid I would say, hello Uncle Jimmy and you would say hello Uncle Stephen.....and for some reason that would make me hysterical. See you on the other side.....

“ Hey uncle. Sorry to have lost you without being able to say goodbye. Say hello to my mother for me.
