“ This is Brooke DeLucia.

I am Jim DeLucia's third ex-wife

I want to express my deepest condolences to his wife Deb and to all his Florida and Memphis family and friends, especially his friends were more like family and vice versa,

I love(d) Jim very much. He and I have two beautiful children

Timothy Albert DeLucia and Michelle Allison Delucia .( Today 1-7-1

4) I had to tell them that their Dad had died. Timothy took it ok in his own way. However, our daughter Michelle took it pretty hard. I, myself am hurting very badly. Yes, perhaps he and I sould not have ever gotten married, because we were from to different world's (now that I look back) but I am glad we did. It's funny how you remember more of the good times than the rough times. To his other children, that I know about, Danny Joe Misner, James Michael DeLucia, and Paul Nicholas DeLucia (Nick) I want to say that my heart goes out to each one of you. He loves(d) all of his children in his own way. So many memories are coming back to me and for the most parts that make me happy. One of my strongest memory is when he and I took our two children and Nick and James to visit his parents in Oil City PA. I remember that for the first time in his life I could see in his eyes how proud he was to have all five of his of children that I knew about together! Of course there are so many more memories that are flowing through my head, but he knows all the ones that are now. Just as I'm sure there are with each and everyone of you that knew him. So when yall all get together this weekend just talk, talk talk about al those memories both good and bad. His wife told me that he wanted a celeration of his life so please make it a good one. Our children and I will be thinking about all of you, but mostly about him as well.

Jim, a little tidbit from me. Now that you are with our heavenly Father enjoy all of his wonderful love that he is giving you. Also. enjoy being with your Mom and Dad and all your loved ones in heaven. If Timothy, Michelle and I make it to Heaven I know we'll all be looking to joyously saying hello to you again. Oh, and please say hello to all my dearly beloved especially Gene and Jessie and Grandmama and my beloved Granddaddy.

Mostly Jim rest in your eternal peace.I love you always! Brooke
