“ I am so sorry to find that Jim passed away in 2021. I did a Google search and discovered this posting. My belated condolences to Cheryl and his family. I worked with Jim 35 years ago. He was a wonderful boss. When the trucking company laid off most of the Orlando staff and I left, my life was on the eastern side of Orlando. I lost touch with all my work family and missed them so much. Jim was a notary and married my husband and I on Oct 21st, 1989, 36 years ago today. I'm sorry I missed him. Life is too short, but Jim was a very special man and I'll see him again in heaven.
