“ *Condolences to the entire family from all the Schraders. I first remember Jim from the New Years Eve parties at our house when I was a kid. Then over the years, I'd see him walking up and down North Greenway for daily exercise, and bump into him at Publix or at Little Flower all the time. The last time I chatted with him was at Little Flower when Madonna told me that they'd gotten married. He was quite the memorable Coral Gables personality. My prayers to all.
