“ We said goodbye to a dear friend yesterday... Ed, you will be missed, and you will live in our hearts for ever!!!

LOYALTY, FAITHFULNESS, SELF-DENIAL, HONESTY, STRENGTH, FRIEND, BROTHER. These are all words describe Ed, and aptly describe his character...

May God's Blessing be on the Stewart Family, and may Ed's legacy show in all who follow in the path that he started...

“ My father had two daughters and two sons, Mason who died as a infant, Sarah Stewart, John Miranda and myself, he had three grandchildren Hunter, Kendall, and Landon. He is also served by his loving wife Carolyn, and his brother Gary Stewart and his sister Shelia Stewart. He had many cousins, nieces, nephews, friends & coworkers that will also miss him. Thank you to all that have left messages or sent gifts.

“ Ed and I joined forces more than 35 years ago. The result has been an enduring friendship, respect and trust. The last remembrance of each other in the Hosp will be forever seared into my memory. I am happy for his spiritual release, yet deeply saddened by all our loss of a truly remarkable individual. God bless and rest in peace.
