“ I had surgery and everything went to hell what was supposed to be a small procedure turn out to be a disaster, with open wounds that wouldn't heal. That's when Jimmy came into my life, I was on many antibiotics at home wounds that needed to be packed and a wound vac, so they send Jimmy to be my nurse. I was very depressed not caring about anything I had given up. Jimmy on the other hand, didn't give up, he gave the strength I needed he pushed me to do what I needed to do so I could start my healing process.. He was my nurse, my best friend, my family. Missing you Rest in Peace
