Jane came into my family when she married

My family shared many special events with her grandchildren, my great nieces and “ Tony and I are so sadden by the sudden passing of a dear friend in Jane. She was such a faithful friend to many and always willing to help a friend in need. Heaven gained a faithful servant and a true God's girl.

Heavens gain is our loss. Until we meet again ❤️

“ I first met Jane when introduced to her by my sister, Shirley, in 2001. She organized monthly Saturday Sew events at her church where we could gather to share projects and learn new techniques. It was also a joy to see her at the Sewing Studio, where I could tap into her expertise on color selection and fabric pattern for projects. Christmas also brought us the opportunity to join together for an evening of good food, often hoping for a piece of peanut butter pie. While she is absent from our presence, I know she is at home in heaven, where I hope she has been reunited with my sister. God Bless the family and friends who are left behind. May you find comfort in knowing that one day you too will be reunited with Jane.

“ Jane was the absolute best in organizing and planning all our Thanksgiving dinners. No one ever went hungry and she always had a place ready for all family and friends that could come. She loved her "fur babies" and never said no to a sewing project.
