

Jane Ruth Stolfo

September 27, 1934 - December 9, 2024

Jane Ruth (Kronbetter) Stolfo died peacefully on December 9, 2024, with her family at her side. She was ninety years old and an amazing woman.

Jane is survived by her daughters Diana (Lee) Archer, Patricia Sideman, Danielle (Barry) Warren and grandchildren Sean Archer, Sarah Warren Mosley and Kenneth Warren. She is also survived by four precious great grandchildren.

Jane was born in Hope, Kansas in 1934 to Daniel and Mollie (Pankratz) Kronbetter and was the youngest of five children. Her family moved to Michigan in 1938 where she met the love of her life and future husband, Louis Stolfo, when she was fifteen years old. Together they embarked on a life of international travel and adventure through his Air Force career.

Jane loved to laugh and was up for any mischief initiated by her children. She enjoyed the simple things in life and prioritized family above all else.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and her beloved daughter, Linda Kay Stolfo. Also, by her son-in-law, Nathan Sideman, who thought of her as his own and siblings Alvin, Nina, Walt and William.

She will be dearly missed and leaves an empty space in many hearts.

Private interment will be at the Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida.
