“ Working with Janice for over 4 years. She wasn't just my coworker. She became one of my best friends. From our competitive trips to the arcade to her going to the doctors office with me for my countless appointments. I could literally count on her to be there for just about anything. There was several times when her and I would go candle shopping and she wanted to smell all the body sprays but didn't want to spray herself so she would spray a different part of me with every single scent she could find from the store. I smelled horrible and she thought it was hilarious. The laughs we shared were endless. I will forever cherish the many walks we took at turkey creek together and she would point out her favorite tree to me every time.

We almost daily would get into deep heartfelt biblical discussions and I loved that about her most! She loved our God so much! She was without a doubt one of a kind and God definitely had a plan for her and I am thankful He put her in my life!
