“Janice Wyatt was my grandmother. She was like a mother to me growing up. I always looked forward to spending the weekends at her house as a child and young girl. The fondest memories of my childhood encompass the time spent with her, my aunt Shelia, and my cousin Michelle. We would go to the Merritt island mall and watch movies and eat at the Piccadilly. We would go to the beach in cocoa and cherry down park, we traveled together, but whatever we did we always enjoyed ourselves. My nana was my rock, she was my stability growing up, and she was always there for me. I will be grateful to her for the rest of my life, for the person I am today I greatly owe to her. I will miss her forever. I love you my nana... Rest In Peace until we meet again. Alisha
