“ To grieve a loved one when you can't say goodbye personally is at this moment the hardest thing for me to go through.

"Lali Singh is in God's hands now...gone from our sight but never from our hearts"

“ Lali will be missed a lot. Always smiling and cheerful. He was a very decent, caring and a friendly person. He was a devout Sikh and had tremendous faith in Guru's hukam. It is a tragedy that he passed away at such a young age. He has left a void that can never be filled. His family and friends will remember him forever.

*May Waheguru grant his soul a special place in the heavens.
