

Jason Chandler Espina

December 8, 2000 - September 25, 2021

Chandler Espina, 20 of Orlando, Florida passed away peacefully with his family by his side on Saturday, September 25, 2021.

Chandler was born December 8, 2000 in Altamonte Springs, Florida to Jason and Susan Espina. He was a beautiful blonde hair, blue-eyed handsome boy. Chandler was a friend to everyone...a protector...He was loyal, funny, compassionate, smart, and he loved hard. He was an old soul in a young body. The best way to describe Chandler's thoughts is that he "could see the Masterpiece, never the mess". Chandler was humble and for him to have $1.00 in his pocket was as if he had $100.00...and if you needed $99.00 of it then it was yours.

Chandler loved baseball, football, and basketball. He was competitive but most of all he enjoyed the game...win or lose.

Chandler was our heart and we find comfort in knowing how much he loved his family and friends. He has left such a big impact on so many people that I pray that everyone thinks of Chandler often and please let his memory put a smile on your face.

Chandler is survived by his mother, Susan Cochran; loving brothers Charles and Christian; Grandma; Aunt Hardy; Aunt Penny; Tessa Adkins (girlfriend);

Aunt Linda (Buddy); Uncle Tommy; Cousins, Pee Wee, Ashley, Austin, and Jase Howard; Amber, Jose, Abigail, Jr., Madison, and Freddy Rangel; Amy Cochran, Gerald Olive, Cameryn, and Baby Jr., Charles Dwayne Cochran, Martin and Matt Howard; Zander Harrell, Christa, Bub and Brooklyn Yovaish, Nikki, Kylund Heikes, Joey, Robbie, David, Tiffany Philmon and Sheri and Tommy Hall and father, Jason Espina.

Chandler was predeceased by his Uncle Dwaynel.

Chandler was loved and will be missed by many more family, friends and cousins.

A special thank you to Chandler's girlfriend Tessa. For such a young person to stick by Chandler throughout this whole ordeal just amazes me. You brightened his life and made him feel loved and the countless hours you sat holding his hand while he slept was exactly what he needed. Chandler loved you Tessa!

“ Hello Chandler, I think about you every moment of the day...I talk about you every day! Your friends keep in touch with me and your brothers...they send random texts of pictures and stories about you...I miss your laugh, your smile, and just everything about you...you were the most caring young man...you loved your family and some days I just can't stand the feeling I have from not having you here with me. I hope you remember me up in Heaven and remember how much I loved you and I hope you have forgiven me for all of my bad parenting mistakes...I Love You Chander and life is rough without you. I miss you.

“ My brother Zander has never been one to wear his emotions on his sleeve, and I have seen him go through many friends in his lifetime being his older sister, but there was not one friend that he cared for the way he did Chandler. They grew up together, did everything together, but most importantly they got through everything together. They just clicked. I have a 3 year old son, who struggles with anxiety and is very shy, but Chandler always earned Emmet's trust, they would throw a ball back and forth til Emmet would feel comfortable and it always ended with him giving Chandler a hug. The memories Chandler created with my whole family will last a lifetime, and I cannot thank Chandler enough for always being so kind, and supportive 100% of the time. He was the kind of best friend that any sister would hope their brother would have, and I've never considered Chandler any less than my brother. He will be so greatly missed, and he is so loved by so many.
