“ RIP Jay. Gone way too early. Last time we spoke was in the 90s I think.

A long time ago. I looked you up online from time to time and you always seemed to be doing well in your career. I'll miss you. Your friend from Atlanta, Darryl Smith.

“ You will be deeply missed my friend. I'm glad we had a chance to speak not long ago but nothing compares to not being able to chat with you again. I appreciate all the laughs and fun times we had... I will miss you.
