

Jayashree Vijaykumar Dighe

November 25, 1935 - February 23, 2025

Jayashree (Tara/ Mamuda/Aaji) was the heart and matriarch of our family, a woman of incredible strength, boundless love, and unwavering selflessness. She had a way of thinking ten steps ahead, ensuring that every decision she made would benefit those she cared for the most. Her meticulous planning and impeccable memory was a reflection of her deep love, always considering the needs of others before her own. The devotion she had for her children and grandchildren was irreplaceable, shaping us with her wisdom, warmth, and kindness.

We are eternally grateful that God blessed us with her presence for so many wonderful years. Through her love, guidance, and unwavering strength, she showed us what it means to live with grace and purpose. Now, God has called her home, ending her suffering and granting her the peace and rest she deserves. Though our hearts are now heavy with loss, we find comfort in cherishing every memory we were blessed to share with her and every opportunity her sacrifices have given us. We know she is watching over us as she always has and her legacy of faith, love, and selflessness will forever be part of us.
