“ Grief strikes Dave and I at different times, today is one of those memory days. But I have a happy memory to share. It was David's birthday and all of us were celebrating at Cocoa Beach. And the place we stayed was up from the beach so you could look down on the beach and see everybody. And all of us were in the water Mike, Tom, Bob, Dave, myself and the rest of the family. We were out surfing the waves, having a great day. Mom was up on the picnic bench watching all of us and I turned around and I looked at her and she had one of the happiest faces I'd ever seen, so content, smiling and I waved at her and she waved back. We were all celebrating and she had a wonderful day with us that day. It is one of the happy memories that I will take with me. Leah.
