“ When I was very young I remember Aunt Jeanette, Uncle Ronnie and baby Bobbie lived upstairs in our rental apartment. She'd bring laundry down to the basement in freezing weather!
I have such special memories of my Aunt Jeanette!
The Sunday School days and trips afterwards to Rexall Drug store in Maitland where we shopped with the 16 cents Grandpa would reward us for going to church! I remember Aunt Jeanette and Grandpa would sit at the counter diner there and have coffee while we spent our money on candy!
Then walking all the way from our house to Aunt Jeanettes and she'd give us money to buy Slurppies from the convenience store by her house! What great memories!
