

Jeanne McCullough

September 12, 1925 - November 28, 2020

Jeanne McCullough, 95, of Altamonte Springs passed away peacefully on November 28, 2020 surrounded by her loving family at their home in Chuluota, FL. She was predeceased by her husband George, parents Gladys and George Schubert and her brother Robert Schubert.

Born in Chicago, Illinois on September 12, 1925, she attended Mundelein College for Women and graduated in 1948 where she studied Drama, Speech and English. Jeanne taught middle school and high school in the Chicago suburbs and in the Air Force School System in North Africa and Germany. While overseas, she met George McCullough, her loving husband of forty-five years. They were married in Bitburg, Germany, lived in Panama, Maryland, Oklahoma, Frankfurt, Germany and finally Altamonte Springs, FL.

For forty-three years, Jeanne was an active member of her beloved St. Mary Magdalen Catholic Church in Altamonte Springs. She shared her talents with her church community as a lector, as a member of the liturgy commission, as President of the Council of Catholic Women and as a member of St. Paul's Circle. Many causes stirred her to take action but one in particular, the plight of the Apopka Farmworkers, rose to the top. So that she could communicate more effectively with the farmworkers, she took Spanish lessons. Jeanne also became well versed with the injustices imposed on this group and worked to affect change alongside the Sisters of Notre Dame who ministered to the farmworkers at what is now the Hope Community Center. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Siobhan and Tim O'Malley as well as her grandsons, Garrett and Connor and her brother Richard Schubert.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be mailed to HOPE Community Center, 1016 N. Park Ave., Apopka, FL 32712 or may be made online at www.hcc-ffm.org.

“ I remember Sunday dinners with Aunt Gladys, Uncle George, Jeanne, Bob and Dick, my cousins. As a teen-ager, Jeanne became somewhat of a mentor, taking me to the theatre and concerts in downtown Chicago. The train ride in itself was an adventure, chatting about family stories, movies, actors. Jeanne could have written "Time Out Chicago," she was up on everything. I visited Jeanne and George during their stay in Germany, and then kept in touch by letters and greeting cards. I celebrate Jeanne's long life of love and care.

“ What a joyous reunion in heaven she must have had with everyone. I can hear the all the laughter she brought with her. She was a remarkable woman and never realized all her accomplishments in life. I feel blessed along with my two sisters to have seen her last Christmas. I promise we will come visit you when this pandemic is over. May she Rest In Peace.

“ I have fond childhood memories of Jeanne visiting the home of my parents, Donna Nietzel and later, of visiting Jeanne and George in Germany in 1976, and also in Altamonte Springs in the late 1970s. I loved her energy and sparkle! I am grateful to have some handwritten Croatian holiday bread recipes that Jeanne shared with me in recent years. She must have gotten those recipes from her mother, Gladys (whose Christmas butter cookies I can still taste!) who learned to make a few of the Schubert family favorites.
