“ Laurie Carr - sister posted a condolence Jeannie is my sister. She and I were very close. We have grown up together. Though we have separated at times, we have always been incredibly close. Jeannie I will miss hearing you tell me how much you love me, appreciate me being your sister and except me for everything I am. You will always be with me. And I will watch over Taylor with you by my side. I love you so much Jeannie

“ Richard and Susan Guess - Acquaintance posted a condolence We knew Jeannie when she was a server at Cafe Largo. One Sunday the restaurant was closed for a party in which we were invited. Jeannie and Taylor were there so it was more personal. When I went to work for Hillel School, a few years later Betty mentioned that Jeannie was her step-daughter. What a small world. Jeannie is in a better place. She is looking down at us and will watch over her family with love and devotion. The Guess Family

“ Greg Waddell - Cousin posted a condolence I told Taylor and Pat how grateful I was to have seen Jeannie and Laurie last spring at Taylor's graduation party.I am a bit of a recluse and was a bit hesitant to go as I was not sure I would know anyone.I walked into the backyard and the first thing I hear is a loud voice saying THERE IS MY COUSIN! It was Jeannie and she rushed over to give my a hug.I had not seen her in years but my memories of her smile,energy,and joy were recaptured from our childhood.That day I had the chance to tell Jeannie and Laurie I Loved them, and for them to tell Bob and Michael I felt the same way about them. I treasure that day and I will always remember her on that day.I felt very close to my cousins as a child and on that day I felt young again. I love you Jeannie Your cousin Greg

“Rosetta Hall - Friend posted a condolence My condolences to Jeanne's family and other friends. I met Jeanne at Maria's restuarant and spent many meals listening to her funny stories. I remember her enjoyment with crossword puzzles and cooking fabulous meals. Jeanne always spoke so highly of her family. She was always so proud of Taylor and showed his pictures to me all the time. She was proud to be an aunt to her sweet nieces and nephews. Even when times were tough for her she still managed to stay positive and always smiling. Jeanne will truly be missed. Peace and love, Rosetta
