

Jeffrey M. Evans

December 17, 1968 - October 16, 2021

Jeffrey M. Evans (1968- 2021)

On October 16, 2021 Jeff passed away at age 52 in his home in Lake Mary, Fl. Jeff was born December 17, 1968 in Kettering, Ohio to the late Gerald E. and T. Eileen (Bertram) Evans.

Jeff had owned his own painting and cleaning business. He also spent many years in the automotive business where he was a mentor to many.

Some of Jeff's most cherished times were with his family. His children will forever remember their time spent at favorite places such as Kelly Park in Florida.

He loved spending time with animals and just observing their behavior. He was more than generous with his time and ability to help others.

Jeff is survived by his 3 children, Justine Evans (Ohio) Kristine Evans (Ohio) Logan Evans (Ohio). Grandson, Noah Richmond (Ohio); siblings, Gerald D. Evans (Karen) Robert L. Evans (Ronda) Sandra K. Feightner (Michael) Vickie L. Davis; Nieces and Nephews.

The family will have a Celebration of Life at a later date.

His children ask that everyone share a moment of generosity or an act of kindness with someone in honor of their father.

It is his families hope that Jeff's struggles are now behind him. May he be at peace.

“ It has been said that the brightest light burns out the fastest. That would describe my little brother. It has taken me a month to come to terms with Jeff's passing. Due to the difference in our age, Jeff and I didn't really get to know each other until he was an adult. For over 30 years, we did nearly everything together. We worked on cars, did construction and even co-managed businesses together successfully. I always knew that Jeff would be there if I needed him. Now he is gone and that leaves a big emptiness. Jeff was generous to a fault. He was always willing to help others, sometimes at his own expense. Jeff will be missed by many. The brightest light always burns out the fastest. Love you little brother. Rest in peace until I see you again.

“ My husband and I were so sad to learn of Jeff's passing. Jeff told some funny stories and I can't imagine the heartbreak Katherine must be experiencing right now. Just know he adored you and will always be with you. I didn't know he had 3 children, but we will say a prayer for them and you tonight.

“ I just learned of Jeff's passing and he will be missed. He was a funny man and kept us all in stitches. He told us a lot of stories about his wolf dog, and his plans of the future with his fiancée. I'll be praying for his fiancée and family.

“ Anyone that knew Jeff knew he was all about hugs. He always signed cards and messages as Hugs at the end. I would love 1 more hug from my little brother

I met Jeff when he was 5 years old. A tiny little boy in his oversized T-ball uniform. He was so cute!

He was always ready to help anyone at anytime. Didn't matter if you were a dear friend or total stranger.

Most of all he loved his family. He was quick to tell a funny, affectionate story about his mom and dad, and his brothers and sisters. His face would light up, and he was bursting with pride as he talked about his three children. Although, you could see how very much he missed them.

I do know he had a special place in his heart for the one person that gave so much to guide him, and to love and support him from the moment he was placed in her heart!

Praying memories replace the sadness.

“ If anyone knew me as a kid, they would know I was an extremely sensitive kid (still am). My uncle jeff always tried to toughen me up and thicken my skin because I was so sensitive. I grew up distancing myself because of that and just wish I could've been by sooner to see him. Love you forever mean old man. I'll see you again someday ❤️

“ Jeff was originally my boss but quickly became a mentor, good friend, best man at my wedding and as close as a brother. I am a better man both professionally and personally for having Jeff in my life. May you rest and peace brother.
