“ When Jeff Proposed to me we were having dinner and we had finished eating and the waiter asked if we needed anything else. Jeff asked if he could have a cup of coffee which may not seem that strange to anyone but if you know Jeff he NEVER had coffee after dinner... so three cups later I was getting a little chilly and I asked him if I could borrow his Jacket and he told me NO which was so out of character of him because Jeff was always respectful to everyone. After the restaurant began putting away chairs and preparing to . close he finally pulled out a beautiful ring and asked me to marry him. the answer was YES....I had 18 years with a beautiful soul and truly the only person who could ALWAYS make me laugh.
