

Jeffrey B. Spradley

June 6, 1978 - December 28, 2016

Born in Boynton Beach, FL, Jeffrey grew up in Boca Raton, FL, Richmond, VA, Princeton, NJ, and Longwood, FL. He attended Sabal Point Elementary and Lake Brantley High School excelling in writing, art, and computer technology. He participated in team sports such as soccer, football, and the wrestling team. The Episcopal Church of the Resurrection was his childhood church where he participated in many Christmas pageants and cherished many friendships.

After high school Jeffrey worked in the construction industry and owned his own tile installation and remodeling business. He excelled at carpentry design and repairs and was a handyman who could fix almost anything. With his optimistic outlook, he could be counted on as the dedicated worker who always arrived early and stayed until the job was completed.

Later he would use his artistic talents to personally design hundreds of custom artwork drawings for clients seeking his tattoo expertise. He truly enjoyed the artistry of tattoos but also valued the many friends he made while individualizing his designs.

Jeffrey loved fishing, camping, heavy metal music, playing the guitar, gathering with friends, and trips to the beach. He was an invincible dare devil who lived life to its fullest and who loved his family and friends with passion. Generous with everyone he met, Jeffrey could always bring a smile or good times to those surrounding him. People frequently sought his friendship, cherished his good company, and valued his wise advice. Children and animals were always drawn to his fun-loving, trusting nature.

Jeffrey is survived by his parents, Daryl and Peggy Spradley, his sisters Kristen Matteson and Janelle Spradley, and brother-in-law Matt Matteson, nine nieces and nephews, Uncle George Pink (Linda Pink), Aunt Debi Armstrong (Randy Armstrong), great aunts Marguerite Byrd and Betty Ann Jones, and six cousins.

We all will truly miss Jeffrey because he was the bigger than life person who broke some of the rules, never forgot to say "I love you" with a hug, and always carried everyone on his broad shoulders through both good and tough times with endless love and genuine humility.

“ Daryl & Peggy -
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Taking a step back in time, a very happy memory of Jeff was his role as our "guardian of our dogs", Bandit the boxer and Rolex the yellow Labrador retriever. He was very good, and kind to both of them. Great son and a great neighbor.

This pic was from Dec of 2011 shortly after he had moved in to be my roomy and "protector" because my son had moved to Maine because his Dad had an accident and was on life support. Kind of ironic....Jeff became my life support. We joked about being BFF's and we had just met. And now, more than ever I am so thankful for that chance to know him. He was the best!!! He would do anything to make you smile...and usually we were laughing hysterically. Jeff was the kind of guy that was happiest when he made someone else happy. I've never laughed so much with anyone like I did with him.

I was reading our past texts tonight ... one from my Birthday immediately brought a river of tears.....

"Happy Birthday Adnerb..... you're beautiful conquer the world! You are loved and protected for life by Jeffro!"

Jeff was a bad ass and feared nothing!!! He lived life wide open as was his heart. Everyone has demons and problems but adversity made him stronger and more determined.

A beautiful soul and the ultimate friend. He was best friends with everyone he called friend.

I know when Jeffro moved on from this earth there were many, many broken hearts....remember this:

"You are loved and protected for life by Jeffro!"

We will love you and miss you forever, Jeffro!

Jeff was first friend I met when I was about 4 years old. He was my next door neighbor and soon became the best friend I have every had in my whole life. My family moved several times is the only reason we stopped hangin out. My parents always loved Jeff too. The only comfort in a time like this I have no doubt he is looking over us and I know my parents embraced him in heaven

Love you Jeff

“ My sincerest condolences. Jeff was a favorite customer- always smiling and so polite. He reminded me a great deal of my own brother, with a "gruff" exterior and a heart that made you see he was a completely gentle soul. My prayers are with you all during this most difficult time.
