“ Jeff's professionalism and attention to providing a quality product was what made us choose AOL for our printing needs. However, his friendly personality and caring spirit made him a welcome sight each day. He shared stories about his early years, his love for his family (Kenza was the light of his life!), his care, training and affection for a very special Boxer, and much more.
The SCPS Title I Department sends wishes for peace and comfort to his family. He will be missed on a daily basis.
