

Jennifer Lynn Daniels

December 10, 1984 - July 15, 2016

Jennifer Daniels, 31, of Osteen, Florida passed away suddenly on July 15th, 2016.

She was born to Bambi Marriott and the late Jeffrey Daniels on December 10th, 1984 in Sanford, Florida. Jennifer graduated Colonial High School in Orlando, Florida and completed her Associates Degree at Seminole State College in 2012.

Jennifer is survived by two children: Jaylah Hardy (6) of Osteen, Florida; and Jordyn Hardy (4) of Osteen, Florida. She is also survived by her mother, Bambi Marriott; her sister, Christie Daniels, and many loving cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

While growing up, Jennifer and her sister lived next door to her cousins Nicholas Lopez and Lindsey Riad. The 4 were inseparable. Jennifer was the oldest and self-appointed queen of the pack. Queen Jennifer ruled with a kind heart and the iron fist of innocence that only a child can possess. As all good queens, Jennifer protected her three little subjects from the bullies of neighboring kingdoms and all the monsters that prowled through the night.

Later in life she traded her crown to work at her grandparent's golf course as the clubhouse manager. During these years she went to school to work on getting her degree with the ultimate goal, being that of a high school guidance counselor. Those that knew her found this pretty funny considering she didn't like high school all that much. Jennifer had two adorable children and momentarily stepped away from her education to care for the precious little bundles that took the front seat in her life. With two new subjects to love and protect, Jennifer dusted off her crown and resumed her role as Queen. She loved being with her children and along with her mother the four were inseparable. Whether at a park or watching movies, playing games inside or out, the thing that was always constant was tons of love going around.

Just like her parents, Jennifer was a social butterfly and blessed with a gift for gab. She had made many friends throughout the 31 years she was here and though at times months or even years could pass; when they spoke again, it was like time never went by. Jennifer was a lot of fun to be around and could put a smile on anyone's face just by being herself. Though she never reached her dreams of being a high school counselor, the love and guidance she shared with her friends and family will last them for a lifetime.

Services will be held on July 26th, 2016 at 10am at the Historic All Souls Catholic Chapel. Address of the Chapel is: 800 S. Oak Ave. Sanford, FL 32771.

“ Jennifer and I have been friends for about 6 years...she was a really cool girl with a humble soul..I invited her to my baby shower along with a my husbands nephew..We have been friends ever since..jennifer & I would go some time without seeing each other, but then she would stop by out of the blue so we could catch up on all the excitement going on an our crazy lives! Jennifer always had a way to make me laugh . . .Generally we would make a night of it and just catch up on any drama, or jucy gossip that the other may have missed...she would even crawl in bed with hubby and I watch movies all night like the 3 musketeers.(u can't do that with just any chick)..my last memory was her stopping by excited to be driving! Decided to stay the night and have pizza & wings..Jennifer and I fought over the last wing! I said I took a bite out of that wing! It belongs to me!...She said u put it down so it was up for grabs! Lol.. She had me laughing so hard....I'm truly going to miss my good friend...she so loved her baby's! Jayla & Jordon were her life...She loved her mother as well, and felt she couldn't have done it with out her.. Jennifer will truly be missed...Until we meet again my friend, know I will have you always in my heart and Memories....Fly high u beautiful Anga!!! ...

jennifer lynn daniels, was a bright candle in all of our lives,a loving and dedicated Mother to her children, and all other children that crossed her path, she always showed a caring heart for her kids other siblings, she would always included them in her fun activities , such as going to the park, watching movies at home, playing games, and most recent,she took all the kids to the beach, larry hardy #3 jazmyne hardy Timiyah hardy, and of course Jaylah and jordyn hardy. she made them a lunch with cold drinks and snacks, grabbed some towels and a blanket, daytona beach they went.. the kids loved JENN . She brought a lot into my life also, we talked a lot, we laughed lot too, like the time jenn was helping me do laundry, and a pair of clean mens under wear fell from the laundry basket on the garage floor, so we decided to prank Larry jR. AND HIS father by putting peanut butter in them, and displayed them so they both would see them, that was the funniest prank ever, they both denied them draws, JENN AND I LAUGH TIL WE LITERALLY CRIED!!!!!!!!!!!!!! We all loved JENN, and she will always dwell in our hearts forever. I THANK GOD FOR ALLOWING YOU TO BE A PART OF MY LIFE, MAY YOU REST IN PEACE, UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN. The Hardy Family

“ Dearest Jennifer-

I remember the first time I met you, a beautiful little girl with the biggest brown eyes. You were always smiling and such a very happy little girl but what I remember most about YOU is the love you had for your sister Christie (Kiki), a love and a bond that only sisters know and I will never forget that about you.

I still cannot believe that you are gone, even though we didn't see each other much over the years we always seemed to still keep in touch. I was so happy when I received a message from you a few weeks about getting together with you so that our children could meet, I'm so sad that didn't happen I know that Corey would have loved you and would have had fun playing with Jaylah and Jordon.

My thoughts and prayers are with you Bambi and Christie during this very difficult time, may your heart and soul be comforted by the love and support surrounding you at this very difficult time.

I am so grateful that I got to spend those precious early years with Jen and Christie as I will cherish those memories for a lifetime.

Fly high beautiful ANGEL until we meet again one day

Love Lisa

“ Bambi & Christie I'm so sorry for your loss. I couldn't believe it when my sister told me. I don't understand why God always have to take the good ones way too early. I will never forget all the fun we had as kids. Eating boiled peanuts right out of the can sitting in the racquetball courts talking for hours. Watching dirty dancing for the first time with her because my mom wouldn't let me. Going to the golf course and just playing around and acting like we were bartenders and just laughing and being kids. What a wonderful friend she was to me growing up. She will truly be missed!!!
