“ I came across Jen while she was doing her pearl parties online a few years ago. I was always amazed at her zest for life even though she had many physical and health challenges. I enjoyed the many shopping trips through the Disney park she took us on! I will always remember her. I am confident she is now running on two strong legs and is able to eat everything she likes, and enjoy the afterlife! ❤️❤️

“ Hey Jen Its Drew, Sis i love you and miss you so so so much. Over the 4 years ive known you, our friendship has flourished and blossomed. I saw you for you, you helped me in my darkest days, you were more about friendship, i looked up to you as my sister, I enjoyed helping you out and taking care of you it was a complete honor. I pray and hope I have the Honnor of having a friend like you again one day. you were stubborn and hard-headed but that what made you...you. lol good ol' Jen, you knew how cheer me up and make me laugh at stupid things lol. i remember how you would get on me about things time to time, i remember when I would be a comidian to make you laugh (just rememebering the good times is like watching old home videos). Jen you will always appart of me and a verey good friend with amazing memories. I love you Sis.

“ There are so many memories to share that it would take forever! I've known Jennifer for (5) years and I'm that time she showed me what it is like to be brave and continue on my path even when times get hard! Jennifer had the biggest heart and was absolutely LOVED by so many people! Countless people , how a night a one little pearl show, turned into years of friendship. Jen loved animals, especially her “Bella Marie” and her kitties, she was funny and made us laugh always, she also left a fiancé/husband behind who is heart broken as well as literally hundreds of friends from all over the Globe! Jens love for Disney was so huge that the park should have its own memorial for her, she was for sure their #1 fan!!!! Sweet Jen you will be surly missed and I will think of you often and every single time I see anything Disney! May “God welcome you the the big Ohana in the sky”

Loveingly

“ I'll miss you & your love for life! I'll miss your live Facebook video updates & Virtual trips to Disney. I miss how you used to break out in song just to cheer someone up. We knew each other for nearly 30 years. You were such a good person & I'm so sad this happened at a time in your life you were so happy. Lifes not fair but I know your singing your lungs out, loving on your grandpa, chatting it up with Walt about everything Disney and enjoying freedom from the wheelchair. <3

“ Jenn was a selfless person caring for everyone around her, sometimes putting herself last. She loved making people happy. I'm so glad this last year she seemed happier than I have ever seen her in the 5 years I've known her. Stephen put her on the pedestal she so deserved to be on. She is now flying free of a wheelchair and pain. We all have a beautiful Angel to look over us. Prayers to all who loved her. 🙏💙🙏
