

Jerold R. "Jerry" Lester

November 20, 2013

Lester, Jerold "Jerry" Jr.

55, of St. Petersburg, FL died tragically on Wednesday, Nov. 20, 2013. Jerry was born to Darlene Kemp Lentis and Jerold Lester in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He attended Muskego High School and proceeded to serve his country honorably in the US Army. While in the Army, Jerry found his passion and skill for heavy truck mechanics. He continued his passion for most of his adult life. Jerry is survived by his beloved three children, Tony Lester, Jaymi Lester and Jeremy Lester and exceptionally shined around his grandchildren and children of the family. Jerry and his loving companion, Kim Bordner, and their dog Jackson, resided in St. Petersburg.. Friends will be received Monday, November 25 from 5-7pm at the funeral home. Celebration of life for Jerry will be conducted 1:30pm on Wednesday, November 27th, at Bay Pines National Cemetery, St. Petersburg, Fl. To all that knew him, Jerry Lester will be missed. His loss is a constant reminder of how quickly life can change. He was a father, grandfather, son, brother, uncle and a friend. Life is precious and impacts so many and all that know him, know that he is feeling the wind in his hair, the sun to his back on his eternal ride in paradise.

“ Jennifer Warren - Friend posted a condolence My thoughts and prayers go out to Jerry's Family and Friends. Jerry always spoke so highly of his love of his Children and his Grandchildren. They were a sense of pride to him. Jerry was great friend to many. Some of his friendships lasting from childhood on. His laugh was contagious and his loyalty was true. He will be missed by so many. Goodbye Jerry and I know we will meet again someday. As Jerry always would say "I'll see you when I see you"
