Jerry Herman Harris, Jr., age 63, of Deltona, Florida, passed away on April 15, 2021. Jerry was born in Orlando, Florida, the son of Jerry Herman Harris, Sr. and Fay Sue Hendrix. Jerry graduated from Oakridge High School, Orlando, Florida

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Rafe Harris.

He is survived by his wife Catherine Ann (Montgomery) Harris, his daughters Lindsay (Jeremy) Kasuboski and Angela Harris (Israel Berrios); his stepsons: Michael Cornelius (Brandy) and Scott Cornelius (Hallie); his grandchildren: Jade Cornelius, Violet Cornelius, Nehemiah Berrios, Aiden Westermann, Arthur Cornelius, Finley Harris, Dylan Kasuboski, Benjamin Cornelius, Grayson Harris, and James Cornelius. Also survived by his sister Kim Price and brothers: Robert Harris, Scott Harris, and Gregory Harris; numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Jerry was an amazing family man. A wonderful and loving "Pop-pop", husband, dad and uncle. Jerry loved his family, he was a passionate music enthusiast, avid fisherman and connected with online gamers across the world. Jerry always had a story to share, a word of advice, a helping hand, and a shoulder to support and cry on. He shared the amazing pleasure of raising his delightful grandchildren over the past 14 years with his wife Cathy.

His family and friends will deeply miss him and will always remember his large heart and endless love.

Services are pending at this time.
