“ Sheena Leeann - Friend posted a condolence I'm speechless. This woman truly touched whomever she encountered. She will always be remembered as a beautiful, giving light. Our dearest Jessica Cataldo will forever shine. I only worked with her for three short months. She absolutely made each day brighter with her laughter and her spunk. If she was absent - work sucked! When she was there... work was tolerable and fun! She was always thinking of a master plan to improve her situation for her and Yoni and for those she cared for. She was so inventive and passionate staying true to a real entrepreneurial frame of mind. She gave advice, and wasn't afraid to speak her mind and stand up for what was right. We remained friends after I left that job and when we met up later on in our careers. Nothing had changed about her. Only that she was happier, and even more motivated. A very bright woman indeed. She lived for her son and spoke of him every chance she got. I remember the one day she brought her darling son to work. He was so patient, well spoken and well mannered. A true reflection of his mothers care and love for him. I'm sad I did not know of her struggles as we had not spoken for sometime. I know, without a doubt she made her way to heaven and is with everyone always. Her presence on this earth will sparkle. When you least expect it to...you'll be reminded of her smiling face. I am blessed to have met a person so lovely.

“ Carol Sanabria - Guest posted a condolence Though I did not know your loved one, I am sincerely sorry for your loss. As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of your family and friends and by the hope below. This scripture has helped me with my loss and I hope it brings comfort for you and your family as well. Rev 21.3-4 "God himself will be with you. And he will wipe out every tear from your eyes. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." By meditating on the above scripture, I hope you find strength and comfort to be able to keep moving forward. “ Jim DiMartino - co worker posted a condolence I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to Jessica's family & friends. I had the pleasure of working with Jessica a few years ago and openly referred to her as "my sister from another mother" because we so "got" each others sense of humor. I am grateful that I was able to tell her that I loved her not long ago! Sincerely, Jim “ Fiona - friend posted a condolence Jess was an absolutely amazing person with a heart of gold. In the short time I knew her, she was able to impact my life tremendously. Jess and I clicked from the very first day I met her. She had a smile that could brighten the darkest of days. She was so appreciative of everything and anything. It is very unfortunate what had happened to her, she was taken away from us all way too young. She had so much to offer this world. Even through everything, she stayed strong in her faith and kept that positive outcome. Jess and I had a special, one of a kind, bond. And I will always cherish my time with her and our priceless memories. When people use the saying " the world need more people like you" Jess was the prime example of that. This world needs more people like her. But there will only ever be one Jessica Cataldo. And it will be impossible to ever forget her. My heart goes out to her family (my extended family). I hope we all can find peace in knowing she is no longer in pain. She is with her mother, and she is up in heaven. We could not ask for a better Angel to watch over us.
