

Jitendrakumar P. Patel

February 26, 1948 - May 24, 2022

Jitendrakumar P. Patel, age 74, of Clermont, Florida, passed away on May 24, 2022. Jitendrakumar was born on February 26, 1948 in Dabhan, Gujarat, India, the son of Shardaben and Purushottamdas Patel.

Jitendra was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend whose memory will never be forgotten. He was a devoted satsungi of the BAPS Swaminarayan Mandir, a place that will forever be his family. He is survived by his wife Kailashben Patel, sons Hiren Patel and Viren Patel; grandchildren: Kaiya, Jaimin, Samira, and Sanaya Patel; his sisters Alkaben Patel and Shilpaben Patel; and the BAPS Swaminarayan Mandir.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you make a donation in his honor to BAPS Charities (link provided below). To honor his late brother Harshadbhai Patel and sister Varshaben Patel, all proceeds will benefit the Susan G. Komen Foundation for cancer research.

“ Dearest Kailashbhabhi,

*Jay shree Krishna . We would always remember Jitubhai as very jolly person. In Dabhan too he was very active . I am glad we got to know him more here in Florida . Hiren and Viren said everything about him. May his atma get the utmost liberation.
Jay swaminarayan 🙏🌸🌸*

“ I worked with J.P. at Disney. I was at Liberty Tree Tavern, and he was at Sleepy Hollow. When I would be leaving in the morning and he would be getting off the bus, I would say, Well, look who decided to come to work today. We would joke around everytime we saw each other. He had a great sense of humor. He will be missed by all who knew him. So sorry for the family's loss.

“ I remember standing at the register at Sleepy Hollow J P was so happy he shared the fact his kids had bought him a new car for his birthday. He loved his wife so very much and was so proud of his kids and grandkids. JP was one of the kindest people ever at Sleepy all the guys would come pat him on the back or shake his hand all the gals he would give a hug he touched a part of everybody's heart that worked at Sleepy Hollow I am so proud to call him my friend, love and prayers.
